

Home School Agreement

All children have the right to:

- A good quality education.

Article 28 and 29

- A voice, to have views, to share views and to be listened to.

Article 12

- Be provided with a safe place in which to learn and feel protected.

Article 29

- Relax and play and be encouraged to join clubs, make friends and develop their talents.

Article 31

- Be healthy and active.

Article 24

School's Responsibilities

- To provide lessons that are fun, engaging, interesting and accessible to all.
- To provide children with opportunities to voice their opinions and be listened to.
- To understand their rights and responsibilities as pupils and as global citizens.
- To ensure that all children are respected and treated equally regardless of age, religion, gender, ability or race.
- To ensure that all children feel safe and are kept safe in school.
- To encourage children to make friends and join clubs where they can connect with others and where individual talents can be nurtured.
- To provide all children with healthy foods and snacks and encourage them to be active and healthy.

Parents' and Carers' Responsibilities

Homework

- To ensure that children arrive at school on time and attend every day
- To support the school's teaching about rights and responsibilities by ensuring my child understands right and wrong and shows respect for others.
- To encourage my child to make friends and respect other children's right to play by playing safely and including them in games or activities.
- To be interested in what my child is learning and support them by helping a little each day with reading and homework and attending school events.
- To buy healthy food to eat as a family and encourage the whole family to keep fit.

Children's Responsibilities

- To attend school as much as we can.
- To work hard, listen carefully and join in with activities to the best of our ability.
- To share our ideas and respect the rights of others to have an opinion by listening to them.
- To follow school charters and play sensibly and safely. To respect the rights of others during play by including everyone and making new friends feel welcome.
- To keep active and healthy we make healthy food choices at meal or snack times and we join in with PE.